

HISTORY (HIST)

HIST 1010 - Western Civilization I (3 Credit Hours)

This course is designed to present the important themes, ideas, and people from the dawn of human civilization to the Renaissance.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 1020 - Western Civilization II (3 Credit Hours)

This course is designed to present the important themes, ideas, and people from the Reformation Era to the present.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 1500 - World Hist Perspective of Oil (3 Credit Hours)

This course is designed to focus on the major events, themes, and people who influenced the oil industry from its beginnings in the Industrial Revolution to the present day. Emphasis will be placed on the political and social importance of oil on modern history.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 2010 - American History (3 Credit Hours)

This course is designed to present the important themes, ideas, and people in American History from the migration of native peoples to the end of the Civil War.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 2020 - American History II (3 Credit Hours)

This course is designed to present the important themes, ideas, and people in American History from Reconstruction to the present day.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 2100 - History of Louisiana (3 Credit Hours)

The course explores major political, economic and cultural influences on the development of Louisiana. Includes in-depth coverage of the role of women and minorities, with particular attention to African-American and Cajun influence. Lectures, readings, and discussions.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)

HIST 2200 - Imperial & Modern Britain (3 Credit Hours)

A detailed study of the British Isles from the rise of the Second Empire to the present. Three units on the British Empire and World War I (1900-20); Recovery, Depression, and World War II (1920-45); and Postwar Britain (1945-present). Includes in-depth coverage of the role of women and minorities.

Prerequisite(s): None

(3/0/3)